

DUBLIN FOOD PRODUCER SHOWCASE 2023

Dublin Food Chain is a marketing and networking group which helps link trade buyers and Dublin's food and drink producer community. The Dublin Food Chain is an initiative of the Local Enterprise Offices, Dublin Region and supported by Bord Bia.

The 2023 Producer Showcase event will take place on October 26th (between 10.00 and 13.00) in a brand new larger venue (Crowne Plaza Hotel, Blanchardstown) where up to 37 producers will showcase their products. It will be a first time showcasing for some of these producers. This will be an ideal event for trade buyers, chefs and store owners to find new innovative products to add to core ranges. The majority of producers are able to supply product in retail or foodservice format.

For the first time the DFC producer showcase will be hosting The Lions Den food and drink awards 2023

Chimac

At Chimac we produce a range of three Korean inspired sauces in 350ml and 150ml formats. In 2019 Sofie Rooney and Garret opened Chimac restaurant in the heart of Dublin 2, with a menu inspired by Korea's love of fried chicken. It was here that the recipes for our sauces were dreamt up. Since then they have been tried and tested on hundreds and thousands of visitors to the fast casual dining establishment.

Bursting with bold, punchy flavour, our Korean inspired condiments can be used for marinating, cooking, drizzling or dunking. We pair traditional Korean flavours like gochujand and doenjang with fresh Irish ingredients to create a range of sauces that are tasty and exciting, yet accessible for the Irish market.

Sustainable Seafood

Meet Niall Sabongi's Smoked Haddock Lasagne: a family favourite now available to enjoy in your home. Created by the founder of Sustainable Seafood Ireland and culinary force behind award-winning spots like Klaw, The Seafood Café & Salty Buoy, this dish marries sustainably-sourced Irish haddock with creamy béchamel and Vintage Dublin Cheddar. Ideal for busy families craving restaurant-quality flavours at home, this lasagne is a tribute to Ireland's seafood and Niall's commitment to sustainability.
